In a Russian Factory Under Bolshevism

Here we have Bolshevism and all that it means unmasked by a friend, a member of the German Government who, after a visit to the Land of the Soviet, tells why the Red Terror must not spread. His report will open the eyes of all outside Russia, even the parlor Bolsheviks of America.

As the President of a University Sees It

Marion LeRoy Burton has left Minnesota to go to Michigan. This article gives Dr. Burton's views of what American Universities should do if they would serve wisely and well.

The Jews' Complaint Against "Americanism"

Testimony from Jewish leaders in politics, literature and religion, that the "Modern State" is a hindrance to Judaism. Sidelights on the Jewish programs of revolution and nationalism.

Barbour Lathrop, Utilitarian Traveler

In Washington recently this chap Lathrop was presented with a medal, the first of its kind; seldom has a man done more with less publicity, but we found out about him to tell you.

Keeping the Promise Made in the Attic

We all remember the horror that swept over the nation when word flashed out that Dayton, Ohio, was inundated. Do you know what the Miami Valley is doing to make a recurrence of that disaster impossible? This splendid article describes the greatest flood-prevention project ever attempted.
